

Cutter/Draper

Northern Stage, a LORT D 240 seat regional theater in White River Junction, VT, seeks an experienced Cutter/Draper for its 2022-2023 season. Northern Stage produces a mainstage season, an education season, a New Works festival, and 4-6 other events year-round. The Cutter/Draper will work closely with the Costume Shop Supervisor and other members of the production staff to execute all necessary costume-related activity.

Responsibilities include but are not limited to:

- Assist Costume Shop Supervisor in executing all costume designs.
- Interpret costume renderings, determine necessary yardage of fabric and trims, fabricate patterns, and cut fabric based on patterns.
- Help to supervise work of staff, apprentices, and volunteers, promoting a safe and healthy work environment.
- Assist in fittings, and execute alterations on costumes as needed.
- Assist with pulling and restocking, and with the purchase and maintenance of costume shop materials, supplies, and equipment.
- Act as a member of a wardrobe crew as required.
- Provide support for events outside the mainstage and education seasons.
- Support other production departments as needed.

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree or 3 years professional experience in theatrical costume construction.
- Competent working knowledge of garment construction, alteration, and repair, fitting costumes, and finish work.
- Strong stitching and construction skills.
- Experience with patterning and draping, as well as dyeing and distressing.
- Experience in wig maintenance.
- High degree of interpersonal and communication skills.
- Valid driver's license.

Job Type Full time, with some nights and weekends required
